

Mrs. Ekua Abedi-Boafo

A results-driven higher education administrator, Mrs. Ekua Abedi-Boafo has distinguished herself through two decades of transformative leadership at the University of Education, Winneba (UEW). Her career reflects a rare combination of institutional memory, policy insight and human resource expertise, making her a trusted leader in university governance and administration. The highlights of her professional journey include:

- Accomplished higher education administrator with 20+ years of progressive leadership experience at the University of Education, Winneba (UEW).
- Currently Deputy Registrar, Division of Human Resource, where she leads policy development, staff development, performance management and strategic HR planning.
- Holds advanced qualifications: MBA in Human Resource Management, M.Ed. in Educational Administration, and B.Ed. in Social Sciences.
- Began her UEW career in 2002 as a Senior Administrative Assistant, rising through critical roles including Faculty Officer, Hall Manager, Head of Examinations, and Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs & Human Resource).
- Proven track record in governance and policy, having served and contributed to statutory and ad-hoc committees such as the Appointments and Promotions Board, Academic Board, and Academic Planning Committee.
- Recognised at the national level through service on the Vice-Chancellors, Ghana, committees, affirming her expertise in academic governance and administration.
- A scholar-practitioner, with peer-reviewed journal articles and policy papers covering human resource management, governance, academic administration, and staff/student welfare.
- Active contributor to academia as a member of the Editorial Board of the Ghana Journal of Higher Education Management and reviewer for international journals.
- Strong engagement with professional networks, serving in leadership and membership roles within the Chartered Institute of Human Resource Management (CIHRM) and the Ghana Association of University Administrators (GAUA).

- Widely respected for integrity, affability and collaborative leadership, inspiring colleagues and mentees while shaping the future of higher education administration in Ghana.